

BOSTON INFERRING ON OUR COPYRIGHT

Manager Cantillon Has Grounds for Suit Against Red Sox Twirlers—Precedents Get an Awful Bump.

By THOMAS S. RICE.

Eh! (This may be translated as "Alas" or "Deary me!")

But Washington won a ball game! Keep that in mind. There is no telling when such a thing will happen again, and you want something for the younger generation to remember. Gray pitched a game that should have lost for him a number of times, but Red Sox had pitchers worse than ours. Hence, the great triumph by 11 to 6.

The way those Red Sox pitchers acted was a perfect imitation of the style of the Washington twirlers in an emergency. Baseball is considered a square sport, but if the Sox keep on stealing the original stuff of our brave boys in that way, they will be pinched for infringing on a copyright. Karger, Mathews, and the deadly Arrelanes were treated with contempt one after another. That isn't right, and you know it. The local position was to drive Karger out of the box, then curl up before the relief committee. But precedents were smacked on the nose, and Washington won a game. Rolls around the tongue sort of smooth, does it not? It does.

Did you notice that Lelivelt got three hits?

We had kindly speech last night with John I. Taylor, who owns the Boston club. Mr. Taylor was talkative, but not communicative. He said he had right smart of a ball club, but admitted that some of his best athletes had gone stale. It was perfectly evident at the ball park that this was true, as was witnessed by the actions of McConnell, who has lost most of that sprightliness which made him famous when he first broke into the league. The Red Sox team is a bunch of youngsters who have been playing at a remarkable pace for a long time, and they are beginning to show the strain. They may be good, but as Nickerson, of the Boston Journal has insisted, but the average fan has his doubts. Mr. Nickerson is with the team and has a pad and pencil by which he will show you exactly how Boston is just naturally bound to win that flag. His guards say that with rest and quiet he may recover.

No. Davy Fultz never played for Washington. This is an answer to the old subscriber who has been asking us for some time. There are no accurate records of the Washington ball team and its men, and many of these questions are difficult to answer, because often a man is bought and sold before he plays.

No, also, there is no new manager of the Washington team. Cantillon is still with us, and it is about an even bet that he will be here next year. He has gathered a bunch of likely youngsters and there is a disposition in many quarters to give him a chance to see what he can do in the way of developing them. If he cannot deliver the goods with the material, then he goes into the class of first-rate scouts, and sits from the rank of major managers, although he may be seen in a year or two handling some other team.

Milan was not so bad as an emergency proposition yesterday. After he succeeded Blatter he popped to the third baseman, sacrificed, and made a single that drove in a run.

In all the stories about St. Asaph's and the failure of the races there to deliver the coin we have not seen a word about our old friend "Nappy" Yates. That "Nappy" got stung is beyond belief. He is not among the kickers or the afflicted, so we presume that "Nappy" got his.

Here is the startling intelligence about how Washington won a ball game, John I. Taylor, of Lake, and Mr. Alexander to the contrary, notwithstanding:

Notes About the Baseball Players Who Are Prominent in the Majors

"I guess they will cut out this slow game talk about me," says Joe Doyle. Joe tore off a game in 1 hour and 22 minutes in Cleveland recently.

"I think Heinie Berger has the best dip on his ball of all the pitchers in the American," says Willie Keeler.

Cy Young is using the spitball in pinches these days.

A new name for boneheads in base ball is "Krupp Armor Plate."

Cincinnati has been coming fast, but too late to do any good.

Pitching for Minneapolis, Nick Altrock held St. Paul to two hits, Nick is showing a return to his old-time form.

New York Highlanders are now angling for catcher "Big" Clarke and third baseman Bradley.

Claude Rossman has quit the Browns again. He says he will not play with St. Louis.

Olmeda, the new White Sox pitcher, made his debut Saturday and won his first game by holding the St. Louis Browns to four hits.

Barbeau is starting at third for the St. Louis Cardinals.

Ball players around the big circuit say that Willie Keeler is just as flippy with his bat as he ever was.

SULLIVAN-STONE BOUT IS COMING

Managers Merely Fussing Now Over Posting of Forfeits.

Manager Al Herford, of the Eureka Athletic Club announced this morning that he was willing to put on a fifteen-round battle between Harry Stone, of New York, and Kid Sullivan, of Washington, before his club, if the managers of the two men would meet and agree on terms. M. W. Smith, the manager of Stone, now has $100 posted with Herford to bind a match and is waiting on Sammy Harris, Kid Sullivan's manager, to cover the amount. Just as soon as he does so, Herford will consider the match as good as made. If the match is arranged there should be plenty of action, as in his last night, Sullivan displayed oldtime form. He fought "Dummy" Decker, of this city, who was well thought of, and it took but a little over five rounds for the Washington lightweight to make the Baltimorean take the full count. In this match, Sullivan was far beyond the expectations of his followers. Sullivan is very anxious to meet Stone, whom he saw box Al Schumacher, of New York, fifteen hard rounds to a draw in Savannah. Stone has been credited with having the better of Abe Attell, the holder of the featherweight title, recently.

ERNE AND CORBETT WILL BOX TONIGHT

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 3.—Young Erne and Fred Corbett, the rival downtown lightweights, will meet tonight at the New Philadelphia Athletic Club in the wind-up. They are both in good form and a great bout should result.

TOM SAWYER DRAWS WITH JOE WALCOTT

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 3.—The six-round bout between Tom Sawyer, of this city, and Joe Walcott, at the Pastime Club, last night, was a draw. Sawyer did most of the leading and landed more blows, but he could not jar Walcott.

ROSSMAN'S ACTION IS NOT WORRISOME

Manager McAleer Says Player Has Lost Nerve and Is Through.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 3.—Claude Rossman's return to his home at Philadelphia, N. Y., doesn't worry me at all. I don't care if he never rejoins the Browns," so stated President Hedges today.

Rossman put up two grotesque games in right field for the Browns and when McAleer asked him to go to first base he balked. McAleer declares that Claude has lost nerve and he is through with him.

BAYARDO IS WINNER IN ENGLISH CLASSES

King Edward's Entry, Minoru, Proves a Sad Disappointment in Race.

DONCASTER, England, Sept. 3.—Bayardo, the favorite, won the St. Leger stakes, worth $20,000, at the Doncaster meeting today. Lord Carnarvon's Valens was second, and Waldorf-Astor, Jr.'s, Mirador third.

King Edward's Minoru, winner of the Derby, proved a sad disappointment.

SULLIVAN GETS DRAW

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 3.—Jack (Twin) Sullivan, of Boston, and Frank Mantell, of Providence, fought twenty rounds to a draw last night.

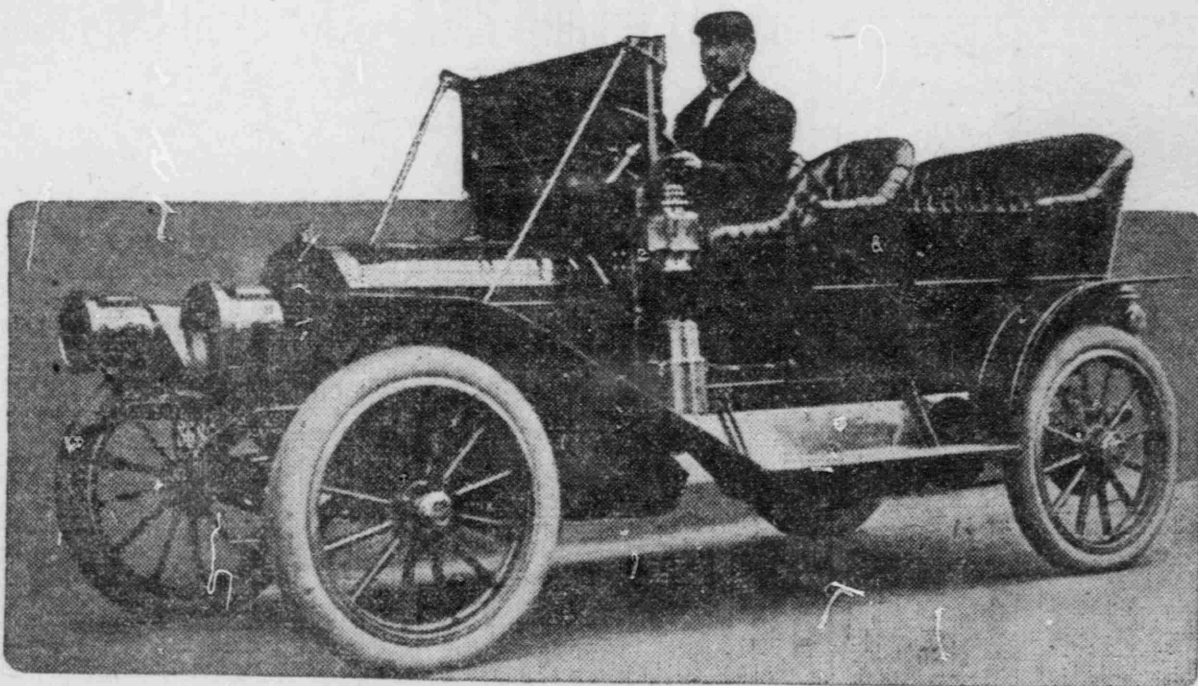

Sullivan was repeatedly jolted by hard blows toward the close of the fight.

JOHNSON FAVORITE OVER AL KAUFMAN

Negro Is Being Heavily Backed to Win Within Ten Rounds.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—In sporting circles here today interest in the controversy over the discovery of the Pole was given a second place to the question as to whether Jack Johnson will lick Al Kaufman tomorrow in California. Some big bets were made at odds ranging from 3 to 1 to 2 to 1 on the black doing the trick within 10 rounds.

In some places the opinion prevailed that Kaufman will be on his feet at the end of the tenth round, but good odds could be had that he would not. If Kaufman stays ten rounds the odds will jump on Jeffries' chances of putting the black away in the fight for the heavyweight championship.

The negro champion has everything at stake in tomorrow's meeting, while Kaufman has everything to gain. Kaufman has been working hard for the battle, hopeful of springing another of these upsets, which of late have been making history in the game of fistfights. The fact cannot be overlooked. Johnson has not been training long and it is possible he may not be in his best fighting condition when he enters the ring. However, his knowledge of the finer points—those which bring victory—may offset the superb condition that Kaufman is certain to be in when he enters the arena.

Kaufman in all probability will carry the fight to the negro, at least in the earlier stages, hopeful of landing a wallop hard enough to upset Johnson or place him in trouble. There are few here who believe the coast fighter will win, his only chance, it is thought, being in a knockout.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 3.—Johnson expects to weigh 239 when he crawls through the ropes, while Kaufman declares his weight will be slightly over 200 pounds.

Both fighters put in a hard day yesterday, but today they are doing only a little road work. Johnson's seconds were little George Little, Bob Armstrong, Barney Furey, Young Peter Jackson, and Dave Mills.

Kaufman's seconds will be Mark Shaugnessy, Jack Cordell, and Lou Taylor.

MAGEE SAYS MURRAY IS NOT COMPETENT

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 3.—Sherwood Magee, the star outfielder of the Phillies, who was disciplined by Manager Murray for failure to obey orders in a game here Saturday, scores the Quaker leader as being incompetent and unskilled.

"I would like to have the Phillies in charge a while," he remarked, "and we would win a few games."

"Why is it that this team, which is one of the strongest in the country, can't win? Because the players are not allowed to take chances."

"I am not of the type of player who stands still when he gets on base. I think that the best players in the country are those who get caught out for a while. It shows that they take chances. If I wanted to I could play a safe game and never get caught once during a season, but I am not that kind."

"The trouble with the Phillies is that they are reprimanded so hard every time they fall when they try to catch their opponents by surprise that they will never take any chance again. I know of several members of the team

BURNS OUTPOINTS PACKEY HUMMER

Jersey Fighter Is Awarded Decision After Ten-Round Mill.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—Frankie Burns, of Jersey, outpointed Packey Hummer in their ten-round fight here last evening.

Burns was the aggressor throughout the ten rounds of milling, and he had the advantage in every round except the fourth, which was even.

The Jersey man was too clever and swift for his opponent, and found little difficulty in evading the latter's wild rushes.

COBB SAYS TROUBLE IS ALL HUGE JOKE

Discredits Story That Detective Is on His Trail With Warrant.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 3.—Ty Cobb, the Tiger outfielder, and also he of "spiking" notoriety, was not a bit alarmed when informed that a private detective was on his way to Detroit from Cleveland with a warrant for his arrest. Cobb had this to say this morning:

"The thing is a joke; why, I struck that fellow in Cleveland in self-defense and only after he had hit me a wallop. And at that, I didn't give him what he deserved."

"The whole thing is a frame-up to get me out of the game for a few days. I don't believe they'll even serve the warrant. I don't see how it was ever issued, for I have broken no law."

TEDDY MALONEY DEFEATS STONE

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 3.—Teddy Maloney, of this city, defeated Harry Stone, of New York, here last night. The bout was rather slow, neither boy caring to take any chances at mixing. The fifth and sixth rounds were the liveliest of the bout, Maloney carrying the fight to Stone and landing several hard punches.

OLD SORES KEPT OPEN BY BAD BLOOD

Whenever a sore refuses to heal it is because of bad blood. The circulation has become contaminated with impure, polluted matter which has not only diseased the blood, but also destroyed its plasmic or natural healing properties. The sore or ulcer therefore remains open, while the morbid discharge from the circulation into it, causes the place to inflame and fester.

Impurities in the blood which keep old sores open, come from different causes. A long spell of debilitating sickness, which breeds disease germs in the system, is a common source. These morbid impurities get into the circulation, and the blood becomes a polluted, infectious fluid, which instead of nourishing the fibres and tissues of the flesh, irritates and ulcerates them by continually discharging its impurities into the place. Another cause for bad blood is the retention in the system of the refuse and waste matters of the body.

Those members of the body whose duty it is to carry off the useless accumulations become dull and sluggish in their action and leave their work imperfectly done, and this fermenting matter is absorbed into the circulation. The weakening or polluting of this vital fluid may also come as the results of some constitutional disease, especially where mineral medicines are used for a protracted time, while persons who are born with any hereditary blood taint are very apt to be afflicted with old sores.

Local or external applications cannot cure an old sore, because they do not reach the blood. Such treatment may reduce the inflammation, lessen the pain and discharge, and tend to keep the place clean, but can do no real good toward effecting a permanent cure. The sore cannot possibly heal until the impurities have been removed from the circulation and its natural, healing constituents restored.

Since an impure condition of the blood is responsible for old sores, a medicine that can purify the blood is the only hope of a successful cure; and it should be a medicine that not only cleanses the circulation, but one that at the same time restores the blood to its normal, rich, nutritive condition. S. S. S. is just such a remedy. It is made entirely of healing, cleansing, blood-nourishing, roots, herbs and barks. S. S. S. has long been recognized as the greatest of all blood purifiers, possessing the properties that are most necessary in all impure or morbid conditions of the circulation. When S. S. S. has purified the blood, old sores heal readily and surely.

SEVERE INSPECTION FOR MUNSEY AUTOS.

Cars Must Undergo Test Before Starting on Reliability Run.

By HARRY WARD.

A number of the cars that will participate in the Frank A. Munsey reliability contest from Washington to Boston and return, will undergo severe tests before they begin the long journey to the Hub City and back again.

The Matheson Automobile Company has decided to send the four-cylinder Matheson, entered in the Munsey tour from New York to Washington, over the road. No attempt will be made to break any records, but an even pace will be maintained throughout the trip, and in this way the car will be tuned up to the finest point. W. B. McBurney, who will drive the Matheson in the Munsey tour, will go over to New York, and will be at the wheel of the car during the trip down from New York. T. B. Spence, president of the Pope Automobile Company, of Washington, Matheson agents, will be one of the passengers.

Walter M. Cram, the Mitchell agent in Philadelphia, is now on his way to the Mitchell factory at Racine, Wis., and on Thursday will start from there in the Mitchell he will pilot in the Munsey tour. The Mitchell entry is the finest of the 1919 Mitchells, and Mr. Cram and a host of Mitchellites re-

TWO EASTERNERS LEFT IN TOURNEY

Travis and Sherman Compete Against Western Golfers For Champ Title.

WHEATON, Ill., Sept. 3.—Two Easterners and fourteen players from the Western clubs remain to fight it out for the national amateur golf championship today as the result of yesterday's play in the national tournament over the links of the Chicago Golf Club.

The Easterners are the seasoned old campaigners, Walter J. Travis, of Garden City, who disposed of Fred Herreshoff, of Ekwanok, after a sensational nineteen-hole match, and Thomas M. Sherman, of Utica, N. Y., son of Vice President Sherman, who beat A. W. Tillinghast, of Philadelphia, 1 up in nineteen holes.

The Westerners who remain include Charles Evans, Jr., the Western champion; H. Chandler Egan, former national champion; D. E. Sawyer, and Mason Phelps, former Western champions, and Warren K. Wood and Paul and Robert Hunter.

Warning!

Only three days remain in which cars can be entered in the Frank A. Munsey reliability contest.

Entries close at noon September 11 at Munsey Tour Headquarters, Munsey Building, Washington, D. C.

Twenty-seven different makes are numbered among the thirty-two entries to date. Get aboard before it is too late.

Hard it as a very dangerous competitor in its class. No attempt will be made for a record by Mr. Cram in bringing the car East. He is making the trip in order to season the car, and the long route from Racine to Philadelphia will be made by comparatively easy stages.

A visitor at the Munsey Tour Headquarters yesterday was Mr. T. A. Lambert, of the Lambert Automobile Company, of Baltimore. Mr. Lambert drove over from the Monumental City in the Model Q Maxwell he will drive in the Munsey tour, and it is his intention to give the car a good try-out before he turns it over to the technical committee in Washington on the morning of September 18. Mr. Lambert expressed himself as being well pleased with the rules that have been formulated for the Munsey tour, and he predicted for the event a record-breaking entry and a greater number of cars of different makes than have competed in a reliability contest this year.

He was especially pleased with the arrangement made by the tour manager for hotel accommodations at the various night stops en route. The tour managers have gone into this matter very thoroughly, and the contestants, observers, and passengers can rest assured that nothing has been left undone to insure their comfort throughout the tour.
